

WESTERLY WALK DEFECTIVE

Mrs. Harry Coyle Not the First One Injured on Union Street Hill—The Late Clement A. Griscom's Big Interest at Watch Hill—J. Irving Maxon and Family to Sail From Stonington to the Isle of Pines.

While Mrs. Harry Coyle is not the first to be injured by falling on the Union street hill, by reason of the defect in the sidewalk, her injuries are the most serious. The street at that point is very dark at night and even some of the policemen, who go up and down the hill frequently, to avoid the police station, have fallen there and received injuries. Still, nothing has been done to improve the dangerous conditions that exist.

The change of grade of the entire street, from Broad to Main streets, seems to have been abandoned, and a year or more since the town council voted in favor of changing the grade from the crest of the hill to Broad street, widening the street seven feet at the intersection near Broad in order to conform to the grade line of the new town hall and courthouse, but this work has not been commenced. The defective walk referred to is in this section and presumably in the expectancy of the change in grade, no repairs have been made to the sidewalk, though a large section of the concrete has been removed at this point. Mrs. Coyle is now in the Rhode Island hospital, and, provided the condition does not worsen, the surgeons will perform an operation today (Tuesday).

Clement A. Griscom, whose death at Haverford, Pa., was chronicled in Monday's Bulletin, was perhaps the largest real estate owner in the town of Westerly, and with two members of the family, is taxed in the town of Westerly for $45,000, with three cottages in course of construction. The taxable property is at an exceedingly low valuation, probably one-fifth of its market value. Years ago, Mr. Griscom purchased the Larkin house property, the most desirable location at Watch Hill. The house was a number of large dwellings erected and

Clean pots and pans with GOLD DUST

Germes of decay accumulate on off-used pots and pans, and ordinary soap and water only cleans off the surface.

Gold Dust does this work in just half the time required by soap or any other cleanser. Does it better, too.

Gold Dust cleans everything like magic.

Gold Dust is sold in 25¢ size and large packages. The large package means greater economy.

TWO WOMEN TESTIFY

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did For Their Health—Their own Statements Follow.

New Moorefield, Ohio.—"I take great pleasure in thanking you for what your Vegetable Compound has done for me. I had bearing down pains, was dizzy and weak, had pains in lower back and could not be upon my feet long enough to get a meal. As long as I had my back I would feel better, but when I would get up those bearing down pains would come back, and the doctor said I had female trouble. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was the only medicine that helped me and I have been growing stronger ever since I commenced to take it. I hope it will help other suffering women as it has me. You can use this letter."—Mrs. CASSIE LLOYD, New Moorefield, Clark Co., Ohio.

Read What This Woman Says: South Williamstown, Mass.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound certainly has done a great deal for me. Before taking it I suffered with backache and pains in my side. I was very irregular and I had a bad female weakness, especially after periods. I was always tired, so I thought I would try your medicine. After taking one bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt so much better that I got another and now I am a well woman. I wish more women would take your medicine. I have told my friends about it."—Mrs. ROBERT COLBY, Box 45, South Williamstown, Mass.

Rev. Joseph Valdambrini Administrator of Waterbury Parish—Expected to Do Much Good for His People.

A Waterbury paper of Monday said: Rev. Joseph Valdambrini assumed his duties at the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes yesterday as administrator of the parish, thus relieving the pastor, Rev. Michael A. Karam, of the office, who leaves this week on a much needed rest trip through southern Europe. Father Valdambrini assisted in conducting the four masses at the church yesterday, and as it was his first occasion to appear before the parishioners he told them that he came to their beautiful church on orders from Rt. Rev. Bishop John J. Nilan of the Hartford diocese and that he would start some important work after a short while, as soon as he gained the acquaintance of the parishioners.

Father Valdambrini was born in Rome, educated in Rome and in Paris and ordained in Rome, where he taught in a college for a longer period after his ordination, 1899. He also was affiliated with different pastorates in England, coming to this country three years ago. He has been in the Hartford diocese for two years and has been administrator at a parish in South Coventry and assistant at the Church of the Immaculate Conception in Baltimore.

In an interview with a Republican reporter, yesterday, Father Valdambrini spoke highly of the city, saying that he had always heard Westerly spoken of as a strong Catholic city and said he was sure that he would like the city very well after he became a little better acquainted.
